

Job title

Translation Project Manager

Company

GIB CONSULT SPRL

Location

Brussels Area, Belgium

Job description

Your mission consists of coordinating international localisation projects from A to Z: analysing, planning, delivering and follow up. You will have the entire responsibility through all stages of the project lifecycle: risks potentially impacting the quality of deliverables, the costs of the project and the ability to meet agreed deadlines.

Offer:

1. A dynamic and friendly environment in an expanding company
2. Attractive remuneration package and benefits
3. Training
4. Great future opportunities

Profile:

- Excellent level of English and French or Dutch
- CAT tools knowledge: SDL Trados Studio
- Excellent communication, organisation and planning skills required
- Customer focus
- Ability to work with tight deadlines in a dynamic environment.
- Previous experience as Translation / Localization Project Manager

Company description

Who we are?

GIB Consult was founded in 2003, providing translation and localisation services. We see our clients as partners and we strive to deliver excellent service day in, day out. We are situated at the centre of Europe, and our drive to assist our clients has earned GIB Consult a place amongst the top Belgian translation companies!

Our Mission?

Every day it becomes easier and easier to communicate, be it via social media, website content, or any other documentation. This content represents your company, the identity of your brand, and thus the way clients see you. We want to help you convey this message in different languages. This content represents value, and we are here to support you in maximising this value. How? By offering multilingual services tailored to meet your requirements.

What do we offer you?

We are a solid partner providing flexible solutions and tailor-made processes by seamlessly integrating your requests with the best possible localisation solution. Keeping quality, budget, and timeline in balance at all times! GIB Consult is a team of experts with an arsenal of knowledge. This, combined with leading edge software and a carefully selected team of skilled localisation partners, makes GIB Consult ready to tackle any localisation obstacle.

Why choose GIB Consult?

We are a partner that commits itself to your needs. Not only will the project be executed according to your expectations, but we will also continuously improve and help you by suggesting new methods. Defining the right process from the start is the key to meeting your challenges. Thanks to our expertise accumulated over the years, we know what we are talking about. You would be surprised what we can do for you!